- To wait for Christ's return
- To serve the Lord

The Lord's answer is:

- Divine service gives us orientation, strength, grace and blessing
- Too young to offer? Are you then also too young to be blessed?
- It would be foolish to postpone the waiting for Christ's coming. He will not delay
- It is in the service for the Lord we get the joy and make experiences of faith.

Also today the young people are sent:

- To be a light in this world
- To be a blessing to others

These are thoughts from a Youth Service conducted by our Chief Apostle Leber. Think about. Do you think you are too young?

Wishing you a blessed month of October

Lovingly Yours
Urs Hebeisen

Editorial

"But the Lord said to me: 'Do not say, I am a youth. For you shall go to all to whom I send you'"

This word is from the announcement that Jeremiah was ordained a prophet. At first, he was reluctant and argued: "I am a youth" The Lord's answer in the above text was unambiguous.

Many young people maybe consider themselves too young to:

- Regularly attend divine services
- To bring an offering

YOUTH SERVICE in Bagong Nayon, Antipolo

August 28, 2005, Sunday, DEv. Rolex Navarro conducted a Youth Service in Bagong Nayon, Antipolo Rizal. The service was attended by 31 youth from Makati, 5 youth from Antipolo, adults and children members of Bagong Nayon congregation with a total attendance of 66 souls. He use the word out of Philippians 4:13 and it says, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

We are strengthened through our faith, our prayers, our trust in God, God's word and living hope. When we consciously use this strength we will continue in love (1 John 4:16) and we will be able to act in accordance with Jesus nature. What this means for the New Apostolic Youth? What goals should you aspire? We ought to strive to gain patience, should strive for well-balanced nature, ought not to be anxious or jealous, not arrogant, do not look down with contempt on those who are younger less gifted are be willing to reconcile (forgive and forget).

After the service, the Makati youth prepared food for their outdoor lunch. They eat together with the members in the congregation. They are very happy sharing each other's food. Then after their lunch, they gathered inside the church and start the discussion about Renaissance.

There is also a sharing of their different experienced on receiving blessing. On how our Heavenly Father answered their prayer.

APOSTLE LETTER BOX

Dear Apostle Hebeisen,

When I put my thanks offering in the offertory box I pray for the forgiveness of my sin and for those who have sins against me, but I forget to pray my offering. Do God bless me for my thanksgiving offering?

ANSWER:

Offerings do accompany resp. support our prayers. They are first an expression of Thanks to the Heavenly Father. Prayers and Offerings go together and even if we sometimes forget to mention something in our prayers our Heavenly Father looks at the sincerity and honesty of our heart. He does not deny the blessing.

In view of the forthcoming THANKSGIVING DAY we want to ask our Heavenly Father that we can bring our offering with a pure and honest heart. That it shall be an acceptable offering just as it says in Genesis 4:4 of the offering of Abel.

Lovingly yours

Urs Hebeisen
